DAVE VAN HORN

Head Coach • 19th Season • 4 SEC Championships
8 Career CWS Appearances • 20 Career NCAA Appearances

After 18 years as head coach of the Razorback Baseball program, Dave Van Horn has continued to elevate Arkansas into one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 18 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to six College World Series appearances, 16 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, five SEC Western Division championships and a total of 700 wins, averaging more than 40 wins a season, before the shortened 2020 campaign.

Ever since returning to his alma mater in 2003 to take over for retiring SEC legend Norm DeBriyn, Van Horn has continued to successfully field nationally competitive teams, while also grooming numerous All-Americans, all-conference and future Major League players.

Under his guidance, 31 Razorbacks have been named All-Americans, 48 as All-SEC players, and 111 have been picked in the MLB Draft. Those draft picks are the third-most among all active head coaches in the SEC.

Van Horn is the second-winningest coach in Arkansas history with 700 wins entering the 2021 season. In 2018, with a win at San Diego State, Van Horn became only the second active head coach in the SEC with 600 or more wins at their current school. In the last game of the 2020 season, Van Horn's club picked up victory No. 700 for the skipper.

Including his years at Nebraska, Northwestern State and Central Missouri State, Van Horn has racked up 1,071 wins at four-year institutions, which is 15th-most among all active coaches. He is also one of 10 active coaches with 1,000 or more wins at four-year schools.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 31-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made eight College World Series appearances, tying for the most among all active head coaches, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 19 trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last 20 years. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, five SEC Western Division titles, 16 NCAA Tournament berths and six College World Series appearances. His players have earned 31 All-America honors, 48 All-SEC nods, 136 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots, 15 Academic All-District accolades and two Academic All-America praises. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

Not only have his players flourished in collegiate baseball, but several have gone on to solid professional baseball careers. More than 117 former players have signed professional contracts, including former Razorback standouts Dallas Keuchel, James McCann, Andrew Benintendi, Logan Forsythe, Drew Smyly, Brett Eibner, Craig Gentry, Mike Bolsinger, Zack Cox, and Jess Todd.

In 2020, there were 11 former Hogs that are on active MLB rosters, including Brian Anderson (Miami), Andrew Benintendi (Boston), Logan Forsythe (Miami), Dallas Keuchel (Chicago WS), James McCann (Chicago White Sox), and Blake Parker (Philadelphia). Keuchel became the second Razorback to win a Cy Young Award when he won the AL Cy Young Award following a spectacular 2015 season. He won his first World Series with the Astros in 2017.

Benintendi, another Van Horn pupil that has taken the MLB scene by storm, shows the caliber of players coming out of Arkansas isn't slowing down. After a meteoric rise through the minor league ranks, Benintendi has already played in three postseasons with the Boston Red Sox and finished second in the American League Rookie of the Year voting in 2018. The former Hog hit 20 home runs and stole 20 bases in 2017 to become the youngest left fielder to achieve the feat since Barry Bonds in 1987. He was also the third Red Sox rookie to have that kind of campaign, joining Normal Garciaparra and Ellis Burks.

Van Horn was successful from the moment he took over the program from legendary head coach Norm DeBriyn in 2003. During his first season, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. His team was ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

The success of the program and Van Horn's no-nonsense approach to his team has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins of the program and three renovations have been completed at Baum-Walker Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the growing numbers.

For the 16th-straight year, Arkansas placed in the top five of the nation in total and average attendance after the 2020 season. With 8,953 fans per game over 13 home dates, a total of 116,387 fans visited Baum-Walker Stadium, good for second in the country in both categories.

Baum-Walker Stadium, already one of the nicest collegiate baseball parks in the nation, has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and now has a capacity of 10,737. Prior to the 2016 season, a 71 by 25.5 foot videoboard was installed to dramatically improve in-game experience and is one of the largest videoboards in the country.

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In his first season with Arkansas, only two Razorbacks were taken in the Major League Baseball first year player draft. That number has grown significantly over the years with a school-record 11 players being drafted in the 2013 MLB Draft. Five of Arkansas' stars, Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013) and Andrew Benintendi (2015) were selected in the first round of the draft and 47 players have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over, with Dominic Fletcher (2nd, Arizona), Isaiah Campbell (2nd, Seattle), Matt Cronin (4th, Washington), Jack Kenley (8th, Detroit), Jacob Kostyshock (8th, Colorado) and Cody Scroggins (9th, Boston) all going in the top-10 rounds in the 2019 draft.

Heston Kjerstad (1st, Baltimore) and Casey Martin (3rd, Philadelphia) were the most recent Hogs to join that group during the 2020 draft. Kjerstad was selected second overall by the Orioles, the highest a Razorback has been drafted since Jeff King went No. 1 overall to the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986.

Despite a shortened 2020 season, the Razorbacks were on their way to another strong showing, posting an 11-5 record before starting SEC action. Arkansas started the season on a 7-0 run, sweeping the first two opponents over the first two weeks of play, then won each of the last four games of the year.

Van Horn had arguably the best hitter in collegiate baseball in 2020 in Heston Kjerstad, who led the team in seven offensive categories, while also leading the SEC in hits (30), total bases (53) and slugging percentage (.791), finishing second in batting average (.448). Kjerstad as recognized as the conference's best hitter by D1 Baseball following the shortened season, entering the year as a unanimous First Team Preseason All-American and a member of the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Preseason Watch List.

Arkansas had three earn Preseason All-America honors heading into the 2020 season in Kjerstad, Casey Martin and Casey Opitz. The trio was also joined by Matt Goodheart in earning First Team Preseason All-SEC accolades, the most of any school in the conference.

In 2019, Van Horn's Hogs put together another stellar campaign, ending in a 46-20 overall record, with a whopping 33 wins coming at Baum-Walker Stadium. The Razorbacks went 20-10 in conference action, claiming a share of the SEC West Division title and the No. 2 overall seed in the SEC Tournament.

Arkansas was selected as one of eight national seeds to host throughout the NCAA Regionals and NCAA Super Regionals, slotted at fifth for the second consecutive season. It was the eighth time Baum Stadium was selected as a postseason host site and first time in program history to do so in three-straight seasons.

The Razorbacks blew through regional action with an 11-5 win over Central Connecticut, followed by a pair of 3-1 & 6-0 victories over TCU for a sweep of opening weekend of postseason play. Arkansas faced a familiar foe in the Super Regional round, taking on Ole Miss in Fayetteville, rolling in game one, 11-2. After falling, 13-5, in game two, the Razorbacks pounced on the Rebels early in the winner-take-all contest and made Baum-Walker Stadium party central, finishing off Ole Miss, 14-1, to clinch a berth to the College World Series.

Van Horn made his eighth overall appearance in Omaha, sixth with the Hogs, giving Arkansas 10 trips in its illustrious history. It was the first time Arkansas had made the College World Series in back-to-back years.

The 2019 squad was a special group, as a program-high nine were All-SEC honorees, with six earning second-team honors: Trevor Ezell (1B), Casey Martin (SS), Dominic Fletcher (OF), Heston Kjerstad (OF), Matt Goodheart (DH) & Matt Cronin (RP), three on the all-freshman team: Patrick Wicklander (SP), Connor Noland (SP) & Christian Franklin (OF), with Ezell and Fletcher also landing on the SEC All-Defensive Team. Senior starting pitcher Isaiah Campbell was a consensus All-American, earning first team honors from the ABCA to go with his five second team accolades. He was joined by Matt Cronin with five All-America awards, one for Jack Kenley and a Freshman All-America nod for Connor Noland.

The 2018 season was, arguably, Van Horn's best as the Razorback skipper, winning 48 games and reaching the College World Series Finals for the first time in his career and second time in program history (1979). The 48 wins was the most for any Van Horn-led team in Arkansas history and the Hogs made a near impeccable run through the NCAA Tournament.

The Razorbacks, the No. 5 overall seed, went a perfect 3-0 through the NCAA Fayetteville Regional defeating Oral Roberts, Southern Miss, and Dallas Baptist to reach their seventh NCAA Super Regional in school history. In the next week, the Hogs secured their spot in Omaha for the ninth time in school history, winning a three-game series with SEC-foe South Carolina, 2-1.

In Omaha, Arkansas barreled through the winner's bracket, defeating Texas, Texas Tech, and defending national-champion Florida for a spot in the finals. Arkansas won the first game of the finals against Oregon State, but the Beavers came out on top in games two and three. Nonetheless, the state of Arkansas was well-represented on the national stage as the Razorbacks are now one of only 14 teams with five or more College World Series appearances since the year 2000.

Seven different Razorbacks earned either All-American or All-SEC status at the end of the season, including Carson Shaddy, Heston Kjerstad, Blaine Knight, Casey Martin, Eric Cole, Grant Koch, and Dominic Fletcher. Shaddy was named an All-America Third Team player by D1Baseball.com and was the only All-SEC first teamer on the squad. Right-handed pitcher Blaine Knight was named a First Team All-American by D1Baseball.com and Second Team All-American by the National College Baseball Writers' Association (NCBWA). Heston Kjerstad and Casey Martin both turned in one of the best seasons by a freshman duo in the nation and were named consensus All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball, the NCBWA, and D1Baseball.com.

Along with the numerous postseason honors, Kjerstad was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after hitting .332 over 69 games with an Arkansas freshman record 87 hits, 14 home runs, and 145 total bases. Martin turned in nearly identical numbers, leading the team with a .345 average over 67 games and matching Kjerstad with 87 hits of his own. He hit 13 home runs and drove in 49 RBIs, while stealing eight bases.

A year after missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since becoming head coach at Arkansas, Van Horn was determined to not only right the ship in 2017, but return to the high level of success that the Razorbacks have enjoyed for decades.

A 19-game turnaround translated to a 45-win season for the Razorbacks, their seventh 40-win season in the last 10 years. Arkansas also hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time since 2010, reaching the final game against Missouri State in what was the sixth regional ever played at Baum Stadium.

A pivotal part of the season that led to that regional host came in the final month at the SEC Tournament. After multiple delays led to Arkansas not even playing its first game until two days after the scheduled date, the Hogs battled back from a first round loss to Mississippi State to run the table and reach the tournament final for the first time since 2007 and fourth time in school history.

The tournament turned out to be the Chad Spanberger show as he earned tournament MVP honors with two multi-home run games and tournament single-game records for home runs (3 vs. Auburn) and RBIs (7 vs. Auburn). In the five games of the tournament, Spanberger led all players with 10 RBIs, three doubles, five home runs, and 26 total bases.

Arkansas led all SEC teams during the season and finished tied for ninth in the nation with 83 home runs. Spanberger led the team with 20 home runs, good for second in the SEC and ninth in the nation. He was just the sixth player in program history to hit 20 or more home runs in a single season.

Across the board, Arkansas' hitters were among the best in the country in 2017. Joining Spanberger, catcher Grant Koch (13), and outfielder Dominic Fletcher (12) also hit 10 or more home runs, making Arkansas one of two teams in the SEC to have three players with 10 or more home runs. For Fletcher, his 12 home runs were just one less than the Arkansas freshman record for home runs in a season as he not only earned an SEC All-Freshman Team nod, but was also named a Freshman All-American by the National College Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America.

With the monstrous final month performance by Spanberger, he joined five other Razorbacks that were drafted in the 2017 MLB First-Year Player Draft. Trevor Stephan (3rd round, New York Yankees) led the class, followed by Spanberger (6th round, Colorado), Cannon Chadwick (9th round, New York Mets), Dominic Taccolini (10th round, San Diego), Blaine Knight (29th round, Texas), and Josh Alberius (36th round, Miami). Knight opted to return to Fayetteville for his junior season.

The 2015 season might have been one of the most memorable in Razorback history. Arkansas rebounded from a 15-15 record on April 4 to win 18 of their final 25 regular season games and surge into postseason play. After going 2-2 in the SEC Tournament, the Hogs became one of five teams in the country to advance to 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, claiming the No. 2 seed in the Stillwater Regional hosted by Oklahoma State.

In what is likely Van Horn's best coaching job in his 27-year career, the Razorbacks went 3-0 in the Stillwater Regional and came back home to host the second Super Regional in program history, knocking off Missouri State in three games for the most improbable College World Series appearance in Arkansas' storied history. Van Horn made his sixth trip to Omaha, including his fourth as the Razorback skipper. He currently has the second-most College World Series appearances among all head coaches in the SEC.

During the run to Omaha, sophomore outfielder Andrew Benintendi put together arguably the finest season in Razorback history. Benintendi became the first Arkansas player to win the Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's best amateur player. He also won the Dick Howser Trophy and was named Baseball America Player of the Year and Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year as the nation's best collegiate player.

Benintendi became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs and batting average as he joined Rafael Palmeiro (Mississippi State, 1984) and Jeff Abbott (Kentucky, 1994) as the only players in conference history to accomplish the feat. He became the first player in school history to lead the nation in home runs (20) and became the first Division I player since 2009 to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in one season. His historic season was capped by being selected No. 7 overall by the Boston Red Sox in the 2015 MLB Draft, then the highest a Razorback has been drafted since Jeff King went No. 1 overall in 1986.

The 2015 Razorbacks finished 40-25, the sixth time in the past seven seasons that Arkansas won 40 or more games. Four players were selected in the MLB Draft, including Benintendi, and four Razorbacks earned conference honors. Benintendi was named the SEC Player of the Year while relief pitcher Zach Jackson was named First Team All-SEC, third baseman Bobby Wernes earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors and right-handed pitcher Keaton McKinney was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

The Razorbacks finished 2015 at No. 2 in the country in average attendance for the third straight year with 8,290 fans per game. The 12,167 fans that attended the June 6 Super Regional game against Missouri State was the largest crowd in stadium history and the third-largest Super Regional crowd in NCAA history. Arkansas also set school records for actual attendance and tickets sold for a single game during the 2015 season.

In 2014, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to their 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament, making the program one of seven teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Tournament each of the last 13 seasons. Arkansas surged into the SEC Tournament as the No. 7 seed after winning six of its final seven regular season games. The Razorbacks made plenty of noise in Hoover, defeating Texas A&M in the opening round, before knocking off No. 10 Ole Miss twice and advancing to the semifinals against LSU.

Arkansas then received an at-large bid to the NCAA Charlottesville Regional as the No. 2 seed and defeated Liberty and Bucknell to advance to the program's sixth-straight regional final, but the Razorbacks saw their season come to an end against Virginia, who finished as the National Runner-up in Omaha.

Arkansas continued to push its best talent to the next level following the season, as six players were taken in the 2014 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, with five of those signing professional deals.

Following the 2014 season, Van Horn's coaching duties were far from finished as he became the manager of the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Leading the best collegiate players in the country against some of the top teams in the world, Van Horn and Team USA battled Chinese Taipei in a five-game series, Japan in a three-game set and made trips to The Netherlands and Cuba. The squad finished with an overall record of 18-8-2 and captured the Haarlem-Honkbal Week Championship in The Netherlands after defeating Japan 6-3 in the title game. It was the second time Van Horn donned the Stars and Stripes in his coaching career, as he served as an assistant coach on the Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2011.

Arkansas finished the 2013 season with a 39-22 record and an 18-11 mark in SEC play. The Razorbacks' 18 wins in league play were the most since 2010 and Arkansas won seven of 10 conference series for the first time since the 2004 season. The Razorbacks reached the regional final of the NCAA Manhattan Regional. After dropping the opening game of the regional to Bryant, Arkansas bounced back with victories over Wichita State and Bryant before falling to host school Kansas State in the regional championship.

Following the season, Arkansas set a school record with 11 players taken in the 2013 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. The 11 players drafted also was the most in the country, as 10 of those went on to sign professional contracts.

For the third time in his Arkansas tenure, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to Omaha and the College World Series in 2012. Arkansas used a dominant pitching staff, timely hitting and strong defense to win the Houston Regional and Waco Super Regional to advance to the seventh College World Series in program history. The Razorbacks won their first two games of the College World Series and finished in a tie for third, equaling the second-best finish to a season in school history. Arkansas finished the season with a 46-22 record, the most wins for UA under Van Horn and the sixth-highest single-season win total in school history. The Razorbacks also won 40 games for the fourth straight season and for the 18th time in program history. Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, the NCBWA poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Arkansas had a knack for winning the close games in 2012. The Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run, including a pair of 1-0 victories.

Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach in 2012 as he earned his 400th win at Arkansas during UA's NCAA Tournament run. Van Horn's 400th win was a significant one as it came against Rice in the Houston Regional. The 1-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Owls put the Razorbacks in the driver's seat of the regional, which they would eventually win with a 5-1 win over Sam Houston State.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to the Sun Devils. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record and closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll with an RPI of 14.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history. Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed, Arizona State, on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 record.

Van Horn achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On February 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament, before earning its eighth-consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional. Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Razorbacks jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history. Arizona State was also ranked No. 1 the same week in a different poll and were coming to Fayetteville for a pair of midweek games, marking the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks had the support of a then-Baum Stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Razorbacks finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

Hitting was the focal point in some seasons, while pitching dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish his ultimate goal it takes a total team effort. In 2007, Arkansas won the Razorbacks' third SEC Western Division title, when they went 18-12 in league play. The Razorbacks were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Two-time first-team All-American Nick Schmidt was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB Draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season, when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Razorbacks did come just a breath away from pulling one of the nation's biggest upsets as they won their first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Razorbacks won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches. Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, Louisiana against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorback sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorback accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse. Prior to his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska went to four NCAA Tournaments and two College World Series.

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season with Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named a finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons including a pair of Dick Howser Award Finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-America and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades including a school-record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first-teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons with Northwestern State in Natchitoches, Louisiana, his first foray as a head coach in Division I. He went 106-65 (.620) in those three seasons and won two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level, coaching Central Missouri State in 1994, and his effects there were awe-inspiring. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of their first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak. CMSU won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

The storied career of Van Horn as a head coach began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College in 1989. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single-season wins in four of his five seasons, beginning with his first, and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships.

Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, DeBriyn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. Arkansas was 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a GA and made the NCAA Regional Tournament in each of his four seasons.

Van Horn's playing career was spent in the infield, where he was a highly touted player. Two seasons at McLennan (Texas) Community College earned him All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors. The standout defensive third baseman was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, but instead Van Horn transferred to Arkansas.

In one year with the Razorbacks, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors as well as the team's most valuable player and SWC Newcomer of the Year accolades. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 draft. Van Horn would spend three seasons with the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

Van Horn is married to the former Karen Lee. The couple has two daughters, Hollan and Mariel.

Nate Thompson wrapped up his third season as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Arkansas baseball team in 2020.

Despite a shortened season, the Arkansas bats were in a groove, racking up a .310 batting average through 16 games. The Razorbacks totaled 118 runs on 175 hits, with 33 doubles and 21 homers, which was an increase in hits (166), doubles (32) and home runs (17) through the first 16 games of 2019, with Thompson's hitters producing a clip of .310 with 130 runs during that span a year ago.

Thompson had arguably the best hitter in collegiate baseball in 2020 in Heston Kjerstad, who led the team in seven offensive categories, while also leading the SEC in hits (30), total bases (53) and slugging percentage (.791), finishing second in batting average (.448). Kjerstad was recognized as the conference's best hitter by D1 Baseball following the shortened season, entering the year as a unanimous First Team Preseason All-American and a member of the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Preseason Watch List.

Over the last three years with Thompson at the helm of the Razorback offense, Arkansas leads the SEC in 11 offensive categories, ranking in the top two in 15 different statistics, while ranking in the top six nationally in 10 of those numbers. From 2018-20, Arkansas leads the conference in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, weighted on-base average, on-base plus slugging percentage, runs, homers, extra-base hits, runs batted in, total bases and sacrifice flies.

Following an impressive offensive showing in his debut season at Arkansas, Thompson's hitters in year two were even better, racking up a .298/.489/.393 line at the plate in 66 games. The Razorbacks ranked 17th in the nation in scoring, averaging 7.4 runs per game, totaling 491 runs scored in 2019, good for ninth in the NCAA. The Hogs also ranked in the top-10 four other offensive categories: hits (seventh) with 679, doubles (sixth) with 142, homers (seventh) with 88 and slugging percentage (10th) at .489.

Arkansas had five starters hit above the team average, with designated hitter Matt Goodheart leading the way with a .345 clip with 70 hits. Four Hogs recorded 80+ hits, with outfielder Heston Kjerstad pacing the group with 87 hits, 31 for extra bases, including a team-high 17 home runs. Six of Thompson's hitters landed on All-SEC teams, with Trevor Ezell, Casey Martin, Dominic Fletcher, Heston Kjerstad and Matt Goodheart all earning second team accolades, with Christian Franklin getting the nod on freshman All-SEC team. Jack Kenley was also recognized in the postseason by D1 Baseball as a third team All-America honoree.

The Razorback bats helped propel Arkansas to its second consecutive share of the SEC West Division behind a 20-10 conference record. The Hogs earned a No. 5 National Seed for their postseason run, which featured a 3-0 sweep of the Regionals and a Super Regional that featured two wins over SEC foe Ole Miss by a combined score of 25-3. For the second season under Thompson, Arkansas' season culminated in Omaha with the program's 10th overall trip to the College World Series.

Thompson's first year with the Razorbacks was nothing short of extraordinary as he guided one of the best hitting lineups in the nation in 2018 to a national runner-up finish at the College World Series. Led by freshman All-Americans Heston Kjerstad and Casey Martin, Arkansas, as a team, hit .296, its best season since 2010 and hit a school-record 98 home runs. The home runs were good for a tie for third most in the nation as five different Razorbacks notched 10 or more long balls during the season.

As for Martin and Kjerstad, the duo combined for a .339 batting average, 27 home runs and 107 RBI, which led all freshman duos in the SEC. Martin led the team with a .345 average, while Kjerstad led in home runs (14) and RBIs (58). Those home runs also led all freshmen in the SEC.

Centerfielder Dominic Fletcher also turned in a strong sophomore season under Thompson's tutelage as he recorded a .288 batting average with 10 home runs and 49 RBIs becoming the first Razorback with 10 or more home runs in his first two years since Rodney Nye in 1998. Fletcher went on to play for the Team USA Collegiate National Team, becoming the fourth hitter (Jeremy Eierman, Jake Burger, Tate Matheny) under Thompson's tutelage to don the Red, White and Blue.

As a team, Arkansas ranked in the top 25 in the country in sacrifice hits (42, 2nd), home runs (98, 3rd), hits (695, 4th), runs scored (482, 8th), walks (324, 12th), slugging percentage (.475, 13th), batting average (.296, 23rd) and runs per game (7.0, 23rd). The runs, RBIs and walks were Arkansas' best since 2000. In conference play, the Hogs were tops in batting average (.302), on-base percentage (.380), slugging (.486), hits (310), home runs (45), total bases (499) and sacrifice flies (19).

In 2017, his final season with Missouri State, Thompson helped it reach the NCAA Super Regionals as part of a 43-20 season and a Missouri Valley Conference championship. The Bears' offense hit .274 as a team and hit 80 home runs for the second-straight year. With Thompson on staff, Missouri State hit .270 or better in each of his three seasons and averaged just under seven runs per game. In his three years in Springfield, Thompson helped the Bears average a slash line of .287/.391/.453, while breaking the school record for walks in 2015 (317) and again in 2017 (351).

Thompson was a key reason for the emergence of All-American third baseman Jake Burger, who was taken 11th overall in the 2017 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago White Sox, and was the first player in Missouri State history to be selected in the first round. Burger led the Bears, offensively, last season, hitting .328 with 22 home runs, 65 RBIs, and a .648 slugging percentage. Burger was named a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award for the second-straight year. He ranked second among all active Division I hitters with 47 career home runs, while his 241 career hits is the 11th-best total in Missouri State history. In 2017, he was named a first team All-American for the third consecutive season, becoming only the second player in MSU history to earn that distinction.

Shortstop Jeremy Eierman, another pupil of Thompson, put together his own All-American season in 2017, being named a first team All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings as a shortstop. He hit .313 with 23 home runs and a team-leading 68 RBIs. His home runs were good for fifth nationally and he and Burger formed the nation's top home run hitting duo with 45 combined round-trippers. Eierman went on to get selected in the 2018 MLB Draft by the Oakland Athletics in the supplemental second round.

In 2016, the Bears blossomed at the plate under the tutelage of Thompson with an MVC-best .299 team batting mark-their top single-season average since 2009. MSU led the Valley in nearly every major offensive statistical category, including slugging (.500), on-base percentage (.391), runs scored (440), RBIs (412), doubles (121), triples (26), home runs (80) and total bases (1027). The Bears' 80 long balls ranked as the sixth-best total in club history, led by NCAA Division I home run leader Spencer Johnson (24), who earned All-America honors with Burger (21) after ranking No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation, respectively.

Three different position players signed professional contracts at the conclusion of Thompson's first season with the Bears, including MVC Defensive Player of the Year Joey Hawkins and all-MVC performer Dylan Becker, who signed with the St. Louis Cardinals, as well as first-team all-conference pick Tate Matheny, who agreed to terms with the Boston Red Sox after being selected in the fourth round of the MLB Draft. Johnson joined the group last year, signing with the Houston Astros after being selected in the 16th round of the 2016 MLB Draft. With Burger being drafted in 2017 and Eierman in 2018, Thompson has been responsible for the three highest draft picks in Missouri State history.

During the 2015 season, Burger became just the third Bear rookie, along with Mark Bailey (1980) and Bob Blakley (1974), in the 52-year history of the program to be selected for an All-America team (other than an all-freshman squad).

Additionally, Thompson's first full year with MSU produced one of the top recruiting classes in program history. Anchored by a home-grown crop of standouts that included nine players rated among the top 31 high school recruits in the state of Missouri by either Perfect Game USA or Prep Baseball Report, the Bears' 2015 recruiting class was ranked 35th in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. In 2016, Thompson was named the best recruiter in the Missouri Valley Conference by D1Baseball.com.

Thompson joined the Bears staff in July 2014 as MSU's lead hitting instructor and recruiting coordinator. An assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College for four years, Thompson filled the vacancy left by the retirement of Brent Thomas after 32 years of continuous service on the Bears' staff.

Thompson served as Hutchinson's primary hitting coach from 2011 through the 2014 season, helping lead the Blue Dragons to a pair of KJCCC West regular-season titles and two of the top five win totals in program history. Hutchinson broke 17 team or individual school records during a 43-17 campaign that saw it rank among the NJCAA's top 20 nationally in 14 offensive statistical categories. In 2014 alone,

Thompson helped mentor outfielder Matt Jones, a 25th round selection of the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 2014 MLB Draft, Jayhawk West Most Valuable Player Jake Schleppenbach and national pitcher of the year Kyle Simonds, who became the first player in Hutchinson history to earn first-team All-America recognition.

Over his four-year stint as an assistant coach in Hutchinson, Thompson helped steer a program that averaged 35 wins per season while posting a .613 winning percentage and producing 23 All-Jayhawk West Division selections, eight of which went on to earn NJCAA All-Region VI honors. In 2012, the Blue Dragons logged a 40-17 ledger, including a Jayhawk West Division crown with a 23-9 conference mark. Led by second-team All-American Tanner Lubach, seven Blue Dragons earned all-conference honors that season, with four players signing to continue their careers at the Division I level.

Thompson spent three seasons at Nebraska as the Cornhuskers' volunteer assistant prior to his arrival in Hutchinson. In that capacity, he instructed the Husker outfielders and assisted with the infield group, playing key roles in the development of 2008 All-Big 12 performers and MLB draftees Jake Opitz (12th round, Cubs) and Mitch Abeita (19th round, Yankees), as well as future MLB player Cody Asche, who helped Nebraska log an impressive 41-16-1 campaign and earn the right to host an NCAA Regional in Lincoln.

Following the completion of his own collegiate playing career at Dallas Baptist, Thompson began his coaching career as a student assistant with the Patriots. A two-year letterwinner in the DBU outfield, Thompson helped the Patriots claim the 2004 NCCAA national championship after turning in a standout two-year career at Garden City (Kan.) Community College. He was a key figure on the Busters' 2003 Jayhawk West Division championship team, earning NJCCAA Distinguished Academic All-America honors.

During the 2006 season, Thompson aided a Dallas Baptist coaching staff that included current Patriots head coach Dan Heefner, working with the DBU outfielders while assisting with hitting instruction and the implementation of the club's strength and conditioning program. The Patriots recorded a .329 team batting mark en route to a 33-23 season and saw a school-record seven players taken in the MLB Draft. From there, Thompson moved into a graduate assistant role at Fort Hays (Kan.) State, where he served as the Tigers' primary hitting and outfield coach during the 2007 campaign. A pair of Tigers earned ABCA All-Central Region recognition under Thompson's tutelage as Fort Hays State finished with a 33-20 overall record.

Additionally, Thompson gained experience during the summer of 2007 as an assistant coach with the Mat-Su Miners of the Alaska Baseball League, where he was nominated for the league's assistant of the year honor. Thompson also served as director of Nebraska's summer baseball camps from 2008-10, overseeing program development and personnel while assisting with the instruction and skill development phases of the camps.

A native of Goodland, Kan., Thompson graduated cum laude with his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Dallas Baptist in 2006 and earned a master's degree in sports administration at Fort Hays State in 2008. He married the former Anna Schardt in 2009, and the couple has three daughters, Nevaeh, Natalie and Nora.

MATT HOBBS

Assistant Coach • Pitching Coach
1 Big 12 Tournament Championship
2 NCAA Super Regional • 4 NCAA Regionals

47

Matt Hobbs wrapped his second season as the Arkansas pitching coach in 2020, joining the Razorbacks in November 2018.

In a shortened season, the Hogs put together a 3.68 ERA and an 11-5 record with three saves and one shutout. Arkansas racked up 143 strikeouts in 142.0 innings, as seven pitchers tallied double-digit strikeout totals, with Connor Noland leading the way with 19.

Noland went 2-0 with a 2.00 ERA over three starts to lead Arkansas' starting rotation. Zebulon Vermillion was electric out of the bullpen, striking out 12 with only four hits allowed, all singles, in five outings, winning one game and picking up a save in another.

Hobbs helped craft the Razorback pitching staff into one of the top groups in the country in his first year on the Hill in 2019, led by senior Isaiah Campbell. The Friday night staple, Campbell put together a 12-1 season and recorded a 2.13 ERA over 118.1 innings, striking out 125 in 18 starts. He was named a consensus All-American for his performance in 2019, with a first team nod from the ABCA and second team honors from five other outlets.

Arkansas' pitching staff was bookended by junior Matt Cronin, who played the role of closer quite well, posting 12 saves and a 1-0 record in 25 appearances. He recorded 42 strikeouts over 29.0 innings pitched for a team-best 1.86 ERA. Opponents hit just .165 against Cronin, as he was delivered five All-America awards, including a second team honor from Baseball America.

A majority of Arkansas' game two & three starts came from a pair of freshmen in Connor Noland and Patrick Wicklander, as the duo combined to start 34 games and appear in 42, winning nine. The two totaled 145 strikeouts and put together a pair of low 4.00+ ERAs, as Noland picked up freshman All-America honors from Perfect Game.

The Razorback arms helped propel Arkansas to its second consecutive share of the SEC West Division behind a 20-10 conference record. The Hogs earned a No. 5 National Seed for their postseason run, which featured a 3-0 sweep of the Regionals and a Super Regional that featured two wins over SEC foe Ole Miss by a combined score of 25-3. Arkansas' season culminated in Omaha with the program's 10th overall trip to the College World Series.

Four of Arkansas' pitchers were taken in the 2019 MLB Draft, with Campbell getting selected in the second round by the Mariners. Cronin (fourth round, Nationals), Jacob Kostyshock (eighth round, Rockies) and Cody Scroggins (ninth round, Red Sox) were all drafted to pro squads and signed following the 2019 season.

Before Arkansas, Hobbs spent four years at Wake Forest. During his time in Winston-Salem, 12 Demon Deacon pitchers were drafted or signed free-agent contracts in four years (2014-18), including four each following the 2016 and 2017 seasons and three after the 2018 season. In his coaching career, 38 student-athletes have either been drafted or signed pro contracts, including 34 who were undrafted heading into college.

Hobbs has coached 12 players that have been drafted in the top-10 rounds, including 2018 first-round pick Griffin Roberts, and has helped develop a total of seven big leaguers: Rob Zastrysny, Guido Knudson, Matt Stites, Dylan Axelrod, Jeff Stevens, Chuckie Fick and Tanner Scheppers and Kyle Zimmer.

In each of his first three years in Winston-Salem, the Demon Deacons improved in ERA (5.73 to 5.24 to 4.11), strikeouts (364 to 435 to a program-record 559), walks per nine (5.03 to 4.35 to 3.83) and opponent batting average (.281 to .280 to .247).

The 2018 Deacon pitching staff set a new program record for strikeouts per nine innings, fanning more than one batter per inning. The Demon Deacons also significantly improved their win totals the first three years under Hobbs, from 27 to 35 to 43, winning the 2017 NCAA Winston-Salem Regional and falling a game short of the College World Series at the Gainesville Super Regional.

The pitching staff excelled down the stretch in 2017, recording a 3.81 ERA, .240 opponent batting average and more than a strikeout per inning against the likes of Florida, West Virginia and UMBC in the NCAA Tournament.

Hobbs oversaw Parker Dunshee's development as he became a two-time all-conference starting pitcher, seventh-round draft pick and Wake Forest's all-time strikeout record holder. Fellow pitchers Donnie Sellers (11th round), Connor Johnstone (21st round) and Griffin Roberts (29th round – did not sign) were also drafted for the first time in their careers, as Johnstone and Roberts also earned All-ACC honors. Roberts was drafted No. 43 overall the following year, while Rayne Supple (13th round) and Chris Farish (free agent signee) also started their pro careers in 2018.

Before coming to Wake Forest, Hobbs spent four years as the pitching coach at Missouri, which is also his alma mater. During his four years in Columbia, Hobbs had seven of his pitchers drafted in three seasons and guided four players to all-conference honors.

In 2013, Missouri's first year in the SEC, Hobbs helped mentor Zastryzny, who was selected with the second pick of the second round in the draft. Hobbs also helped guide pitcher Keaton Steele to All-SEC First Team honors as Steele was the only player in the nation to lead his team in wins and saves.

The pitching staff in 2013, despite being made up of eight newcomers, ranked among the best in recent Mizzou history with a 3.87 ERA in 50 games. That was the best team mark by a Tiger team since 2006. His three regular starters all had ERAs 3.80 or lower and his staff allowed just 152 walks, which was third in the league.

In 2012, he mentored starter Zastryzny to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors and closer Dusty Ross to a spot on the All-Big 12 Second Team.

In 2011, three of his pitchers were selected in the MLB Draft and he coached All-Big 12 Freshman Team honoree Zastryzny and All-Big 12 honorable mention pick Phil McCormick.

Hobbs spent the 2010 season as the pitching coach at the University of San Francisco, where his staff ranked fourth in the West Coast Conference in ERA and was second in the league in fewest walks per nine innings. Also, Hobbs turned Kyle Zimmer from a third baseman into a pitcher. Hobbs' tutelage and foresight paid off for Zimmer, who was drafted fifth overall in the MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals.

Before USF, Hobbs spent three years as the associate head coach, pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at UC-San Diego. The Tritons made a trip to the Division II College World Series in 2009. They finished that year ranked No. 3 after claiming the school's first ever Regional Championship.

Under Hobbs, UCSD's pitching staff allowed the fewest number of walks per nine innings in D-II in 2009 and ranked 12th nationally with a 3.73 ERA.

Prior to his stint at UC-San Diego, Hobbs spent two seasons as the pitching coach at Santa Barbara City College. In 2006, Hobbs' staff allowed the fewest walks in the Western State Conference, while the 2005 squad led the WSC with a 2.27 ERA. During the summers, Hobbs was the pitching coach for Foresters Baseball, which won the National Baseball Congress World Series in 2006 after finishing runner-up in 2005. Hobbs also served one season as an assistant coach at Chapman University, where he worked with the pitchers and catchers.

Hobbs pitched at Missouri from 1999-2002, where he won 13 games and struck out 125 batters. Hobbs was drafted twice, first by the San Diego Padres in 2001 and then by the Kansas City Royals in 2002.

Hobbs and his wife, Marta, have two daughters, Addison and Taylor, and a son, Will.

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum-Walker Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 10,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course the physical properties of Baum-Walker Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch their Razorbacks take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum-Walker Stadium was George Cole Field and the new park preserved the tradition with its current name. In 2018, the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation pledged $5 million in support of the soon-to-come Baseball Performance Center. As a result of the commitment and pledge, Baum Stadium's name was changed to Baum-Walker Stadium.

In 1998, Baum-Walker Stadium received a special honor, when it was named the nation's No. 1 facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since its construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum-Walker Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that Baum-Walker Stadium brings to college baseball, which is why it has been the host to eight NCAA Regionals and four NCAA Super Regionals.

Baum-Walker Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then it has undergone four renovations, making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season, when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats also were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum-Walker Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stood 45-feet high and 76-feet wide. The original turf field of Baum-Walker Stadium's construction was torn out and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign, but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. A portion of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob & Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley. The next renovation came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 from luxury boxes.

New LED ribbon boards were added in 2013, and the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center opened in the fall of 2014, providing Arkansas with the finest collegiate indoor facility in the country. The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full-size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

In 2016, the university's partnership with South Dakota-based Daktronics produced the largest video board ever installed at an on-campus college baseball facility in the country. The massive 25 foot by 71 foot LED video board enhances an already memorable experience at Baum Stadium by providing 1,775 square feet of digital space for live high-definition video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, and game information, graphics and animations.

In 2018, the U of A Board of Trustees approved the construction of a baseball performance center at Baum-Walker Stadium. The new building, which will sit beyond the right field foul pole, will be approximately 40,000+-square feet and will focus on upgraded player amenities including new locker rooms, training rooms, player lounge areas and coaches offices. This new building will have a new weight room as well as an indoor practice area.

In 2004, Baum Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and have seen steady increases in both areas.

In an informal study by the Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, Arkansas led the nation in actual attendance between 2004 and 2007 and was edged by LSU in 2008 by 20 fans as patrons returned to Baton Rouge's Alex Box Stadium in its final season.

The combination of the upgrades prior to the 2007 season and a top-10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth-straight year. The Razorbacks became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069) as their attendance over 33 home games was 266,270. Arkansas also set a then-school record for actual attendance with 198,218 fans (6,007 per game) passing through the gates.

The attendance figures drawn to Baum-Walker Stadium allowed Fayetteville to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the Regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over its six games.

In April 2009, Baum-Walker Stadium played host to its first No. 1 versus No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance while 11,434 tickets were sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans to see Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007.

The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a Razorback midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series highmark.

Razorback fans have continued to set the bar high when it comes to postseason attendance. Baum-Walker Stadium has been lucky to have been a host for the 2015 NCAA Super Regional, the 2017 NCAA Regional and the 2018 & 2019 NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals. Eight of the top 10 actual crowds in stadium history have occurred in one of those four postseasons.

On June 6, 2015, a school-record of 12,167 fans watched game two of the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional between Arkansas and Missouri State. The day before, 11,869 fans came through the turnstiles to watch game one, which still ranks second on the all-time actual crowds list. In game three of that series, the Razorbacks completed the trifecta with the third-straight day of 11,500+ fans inside the stadium as they witnessed the Hogs lock up their eighth trip to the College World Series.

Three years later, Arkansas nearly matched that fan support in the 2018 Fayetteville Super Regional against SEC-foe South Carolina. More than 11,000 fans entered the grounds to see the Razorbacks earn their ninth trip to Omaha. In total for the entire 2018 postseason, 89,852 fans packed Baum-Walker stadium throughout the two rounds, more than any other postseason site.

The Razorback faithful accomplished it again in 2019 after hosting nine games during the NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals during the NCAA Tournament, welcoming more fans than any other ballpark in the nation. Arkansas saw 93,868 fans pack the stadium during the two postseason rounds that showcased the Hogs advancing to their 10th College World Series in program history. The total was 4,000 more than attended last year's Regionals and Super Regionals.

Baum-Walker Stadium was one of eight ballparks to host both postseason rounds and the only one to surpass 90,000 in total attendance. In the games featuring the Razorbacks, the average attendance was 10,845 – including 11,276 during Super Regionals. All three Super Regional crowds exceeded 11,000 and are some of the largest postseason paid attendances in stadium history.

Including the postseason, total attendance at Baum-Walker Stadium this season climbed to 348,775, the third-highest total in the nation. On average, Arkansas accumulated 8,719 fans per game, the fourth-highest in the country. It's the 16th-straight year that Arkansas has ranked in the top-five in the nation in attendance.

Baum-Walker Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former U of A Athletics Director Frank Broyles and contributions by the families of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum.

While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles have been instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for Arkansas baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baums and Walkers that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletics director donned the Cardinal and White many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. Eighteen months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers 9-2 in the stadium's inaugural contest.

|| BAUM-WALKER STADIUM

Named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, George Cole Field served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996.

With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time.

Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas 5-4 in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus. Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas 10-6 in the championship game to win its first conference tournament title. The SWC tournament came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, UA officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Razorbacks to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum-Walker Stadium at George Cole Field.

A native of Bauxite, Arkansas, Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Razorback football team, Cole scored a then-school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927. He began his administrative career at Arkansas as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

FOWLER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER

The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

Thanks in part to the generous $2.5 million gift provided by the Wallace and Jama Fowler family, the University of Arkansas completed a brand new world class indoor training facility for baseball and track in the summer of 2015.

Dedicated on Sept. 20, 2014 as the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Center, the facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

The facility includes four batting cages with a drop down and raise up netting system that allows for baseball training and available surface space. The practice infield is suitable for live hitting with nets ensuring safe activity and observation outside the infield space and protective measures toward the facility structure.

The Fowler Family's gift marked substantial progress toward meeting the fundraising goal for the project. The fundraising goal for the facility was funded by a combination of capital gifts, athletic revenues and proceeds from a bond issue. The total project cost was $9.1 million.

|| PROGRAM HISTORY

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With nine College World Series appearances - including national runner-up finishes in 1979 and 2018 - and 31 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 99th season of play in 2021, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930 to 1946. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the university.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins, that modern day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC Tournaments held during the Razorbacks' membership in the league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in just his 10th campaign.

That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Razorbacks finish as national runners-up to Cal State Fullerton.

In his final season as coach in 2002, DeBriyn guided Arkansas to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the Super Regional two games to one to host Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with trips to the College World Series in 2004, 2009, 2012, 2015 and 2018, 15 NCAA Tournament berths and six super regional appearances in his first 16 seasons.

Head coach Norm DeBriyn led the Razorbacks to their first SEC title in 1999. In his career, he guided Arkansas to three conference titles combined in the SWC and SEC.

With the installation of lights at George Cole Field, Arkansas was able to host its first night game and the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the NCAA College World Series in its first decade in the park.

Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continued with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard and Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and moved the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Progressive Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep.

Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998 and 2018, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process.

Since 2004, the Hogs' second season under Van Horn, Arkansas has ranked in the top-five nationally in average attendance each year, bringing in 7,633 fans per game.

Another crown jewel of Razorback baseball is the new Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center. The 52,000 square-foot climate-controlled indoor facility opened in the fall of 2014 and includes a full-size practice infield that is suitable for live hitting, fielding and base running. The facility also includes four batting cages and protective netting around the facility to ensure safe activity and observation while taking protective measures toward the facility structure.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 93 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 27 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 22 freshman All-America selections, 59 conference all-tournament selections, four conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004), one conference tournament championship and 11 NCAA Regional Tournament championships.

Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has already placed 53 players on All-SEC lists. Throughout the years, 59 former Razorbacks have played in the big leagues and eight were major league first-round draft picks in McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013) and Andrew Benintendi (2015).

Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Tom Pagnozzi. In addition to contributing the funds which made possible the Razorback clubhouse that bears his name, the annual Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Razorbacks lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Florida, in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska, for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game, 13-10, to force a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one 2-1, sending the disappointed Razorbacks home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for those teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985, winning three straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985.

There have been 13 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Dominic Taccolini, Matt Cronin, and Josh Alberius in the 2017 SEC Tournament. They blanked Auburn to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996), Scott Roehl (2001), and Nick Schmidt-Brian McLelland, Devin Collis (2006) as no-hit specialists.

Another Nye helped the Razorbacks make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to help the Razorbacks to a victory that gave UA its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as Arkansas' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina, 17-16, in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13 consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Razorbacks earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, head coach Dave Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Razorbacks to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA Tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

The Razorbacks hosted, at the time, the largest attended NCAA Regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy.

Former Razorbacks Ronn Reynolds, Kevin McReynolds, Tim Lollar and Johnny Ray with long-time Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn (middle). All four #ProHogs played in the Major Leagues for at least six years and each played in at least 100 games or more during thier careers.

Arkansas clinched its eighth trip to the College World Series in 2015 after defeating Missouri State in game three of the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional. Arkansas won 21 of its final 29 games that year to reach its 14th-straight NCAA Tournament. In game two of the Super Regional, fans set a single-game Baum Stadium attendance record (12,167) that still stands today.

Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers, 4-3, in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338 on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win in game two, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time in other national polls.

That same year, the Hogs swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, to earn the program's sixth trip to Omaha.

On college baseball's grandest stage at historic Rosenblatt Stadium, Arkansas split its first two games of the 2009 College World Series, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Razorbacks found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic, 4-3, in 12 innings, and finished the series in third place.

The Razorbacks reached the College World Series for the third time under Van Horn in 2012 as Arkansas put together a memorable postseason run that saw them down old SWC rivals Rice and Baylor on their home fields. Arkansas opened its tournament run in Houston as it defeated Sam Houston State twice and downed eighth-ranked Rice in a 1-0 shutout.

The next week, Arkansas returned to the state of Texas and faced No. 4 national seed Baylor. After dropping the opener of the Super Regional, Arkansas responded by winning the next two games to punch its ticket to Omaha.

A scoreless game until the top of the 10th inning, Arkansas broke through on Jake Wise's RBI single, scoring Brian Anderson. Randall Fant, Nolan Sanburn, Brandon Moore, Trent Daniel and Colby Suggs combined to shut down the high-powered Baylor offense and send Arkansas to Omaha.

In the College World Series, the Razorbacks opened by winning its first two games, defeating Kent State, 8-1, in the opener and then downing South Carolina, 2-1, to snap the Gamecocks' 22-game NCAA postseason win streak. Arkansas would finish tied for third in the CWS after eventual-runner up South Carolina defeated the Razorbacks twice.

The 2015 season saw the greatest individual performance ever by an Arkansas baseball player as outfielder Andrew Benintendi became the first Razorback to win the Golden Spikes Award given to the national player of the year. The sophomore wowed the crowds at Baum Stadium as he became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs (20) and batting average (.376).

With the help of Benintendi, Arkansas had an improbable run culminating in one of the most memorable seasons in Razorback history. Entering April at 14-14, Arkansas went on a tear, going 21-8 in its final 29 games and earned a two-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Arkansas headed to the Stillwater Regional and cruised through, winning all three games they played. The Hogs won the Regional and won the right to host a Super Regional the following week against national-seed Missouri State.

The Razorbacks split the first two games of the Fayetteville Super Regional setting up a winner-take-all third game. Behind a raucous and stadium-record crowd of 12,167 fans, first team All-SEC closer Zach Jackson took the mound with a one run lead and 11 outs standing between the Razorbacks and Omaha. Jackson retired 11 straight, including a series-ending strikeout that sent Baum Stadium into hysteria and the Razorbacks to the College World Series for the third time in the past seven years.

Arkansas continued its trend of making it to Omaha every three seasons as it returned to the College World Series in 2018, the fifth time under head coach Dave Van Horn and ninth time overall. In turn, the Razorbacks made its deepest run since 1979.

The road to its ninth College World Series was not easy as Arkansas' regular-season schedule was, arguably, the toughest in the nation. The Hogs faced four of the seven other teams (Mississippi State, Florida, Texas, Texas Tech) that made the CWS field and went on to win 35 games at home, never losing a series at Baum Stadium in the process.

For the third time in its history, Arkansas was awarded a national seed (No. 5) for the NCAA Tournament ultimately giving it home field advantage all the way to the College World Series. The Hogs won three-straight games in the regional and two of three games in the Super Regional against SEC foe, South Carolina to earn the coveted spot in Omaha. The fans responded with the opportunity of having postseason baseball at Baum Stadium, making it the highest attended regional and super regional for 2018.

In Omaha, the Razorbacks won their first three games of the series, defeating Texas, Texas Tech and Florida to earn its first trip to the CWS final since 1979. Arkansas won game one of the final against Oregon State, 4-1, utilizing another stellar pitching performance from junior Blaine Knight, who ended his Razorback career setting the Arkansas single-season record for wins with a perfect 14-0 record. His closer, Matt Cronin, also set the Arkansas single-season saves record (14) in the same game.

Arkansas came within one strike of winning its first national championship in game two against Oregon State, but the Beavers scored three runs in the ninth inning and claimed game three the next day to give Arkansas its second national runner-up trophy in school history.

For the first time in program history, the Razorbacks secured a trip to the College World Series in back-to-back seasons, reaching the promised land in 2019. The Hogs rode a 41-17 overall record and a 20-10 mark in SEC play to a West Division title and a No. 5 National Seed, ensuring the Road to Omaha continued to run through Fayetteville.

In Regional action, Arkansas made light work of Central Connecticut State (11-5) and TCU twice (3-1 & 6-0) to move on to Super Regional play, where a familiar foe awaited them. Arkansas got the privilege of facing Ole Miss for the sixth, seventh & eighth times in 2019, taking games one & three by scores of 11-2 & 14-1 to earn the program's 10th trip to the College World Series.

Despite a shortened season in 2020, the Hogs still found ways to make it a memorable one. Arkansas started out 7-0 with sweeps over Eastern Illinois and Gonzaga, which included an Opening Day 11-strikeout performance from Connor Noland. In the finale against South Alabama, Heston Kjerstad hit the program's first walk-off home run exactly seven years to the day on March 8, 2013. The final game of the season was also a milestone game, as a wild 10-9 victory over Grand Canyon gave Dave Van Horn his 700th as head coach of the Razorbacks.

Head coach Dave Van Horn has reached the College World Series eight times in his career, six with Arkansas. His eight trips to Omaha is tied for the most of any active coach in the nation.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum-Walker Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

McReynolds was named an All-American and All-SWC player in 1980 and 1981. He was a member of Arkansas' first College World Series team in 1979 and went on to have a productive MLB career, playing 12 seasons combined between the San Diego Padres, New York Mets and Kansas City Royals.

Former Arkansas players have made an appearance in Major League Baseball, starting with Chuck Tompkins in 1912.

DRAFT STREAK

Arkansas has had at least one player selected in each of the past 45 MLB Drafts, dating back to 1975. In the 2018 MLB Draft, Arkansas tied the school record with 11 players selected, marking the third time (1985 & 2013) it has had double-figure players taken in a single draft.

BENINTENDI WINS WORLD SERIES WITH BOSTON

Former Razorback and national player of the year Andrew Benintendi became a World Series champion with the Boston Red Sox in 2018. Benintendi is the fourth former Razorback to win a World Series title, joining Dick Hughes (1967 - St. Louis), Eric Hinske (2007 - Boston; 2009 - NY Yankees) and Dallas Keuchel (2017 - Houston).

BEEKS MAKES MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT

In early June 2018, left-handed pitcher Jalen Beeks became the 59th former Razorback to make an appearance in an MLB game when he earned the spot start for the Boston Red Sox against the Detroit Tigers. Beeks was one of Boston's top pitching prospect in AAA Pawtucket prior to his debut. He was traded to Tampa Bay later in the year and he made 12 appearances for the Rays out of the bullpen.

BEST OF THE BEST

Kevin McReynolds leads all #ProHogs with 211 career home runs, while Johnny Ray owns a career-best 1,502 hits. 2008 American League Cy Young Award winner Cliff Lee holds nearly every pitching record, including 143 wins and 1,824 strikeouts in 2,156.2 innings.

In one of the wildest and most memorable games in Razorback history, Arkansas was on the brink of elimination in the 2017 NCAA Fayetteville Regional against Missouri State. After enduring a 9 p.m. start and multiple rain delays, the Hogs and Bears played into the wee hours of the morning, finishing well after 3 a.m. Junior Jared Gates' go-ahead home run in eighth inning was enough to force a regional-deciding game, which was played later that day.

DR. JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ | CHANCELLOR

Joseph E. Steinmetz became the sixth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on Jan. 1, 2016. As chief executive officer, Dr. Steinmetz oversaw the establishment of the university's 8 Guiding Priorities, which have led to new programs and initiatives like the Advance Arkansas scholarship program to improve access for underrepresented students and the Chancellor's Discovery and Innovation Fund, as well as major investments in research and commercialization. More recently, he announced ten action items that would help distinguish the University as it looked to 2020 and beyond.

During his tenure, the university has received several significant gifts, including a $120 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation to establish a School of Art, as well as $194.7 million grant from the same foundation to establish the Institute for Integrative and Innovative Research (I3R). Steinmetz has also led efforts to construct a 71,000 square foot student success center, which is currently under construction in the heart of campus. He continues to meet with a broad range of stakeholders across the state to advocate for public education and to learn how they can work together for the common goal of strengthening the flagship.

A nationally respected behavioral neuroscientist, Dr. Steinmetz was recognized in 1996 by the National Academy of Sciences for his contributions to the fields of experimental psychology and neuroscience. In 2012 he was named an AAAS Fellow. Prior to his appointment as chancellor, he was Ohio State's chief academic officer. As executive vice president and provost, he oversaw the administration, coordination, and development of all academic functions of the university.

Dr. Steinmetz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Central Michigan University and his doctorate at Ohio University. He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons and five grandchildren.

GERALD JORDAN | FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Gerald Jordan, associate professor of journalism, worked 25 years for metropolitan daily newspapers before he joined the U of A faculty. His appointment as the faculty athletics representative marks a return to his start as a student covering the Razorbacks.

As his predecessor, Dr. Sharon Hunt, Jordan is an Arkansas alumnus and he becomes only the fourth U of A faculty member to fill this position. Chancellor Joe Steinmetz appointed Jordan to be the faculty member who certifies the eligibility of student-athletes and will be the university's faculty representative to the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

Jordan graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1970 with a degree in journalism, and earned his master's degree in journalism at Northwestern University in 1971. He is a 1982 Nieman Fellow at Harvard University.

Jordan began his career as a sports reporter for The Kansas City Star, where he subsequently wrote editorials and was a TV columnist. He wrote editorials for The Boston Globe. At The Philadelphia Inquirer, Jordan was a reporter, a Washington correspondent and worked as an editor in several departments before joining the journalism faculty. He returned to The Inquirer as an editor for 15 summers. He also worked two summers on News21, a national investigative journalism project at the Walter Cronkite School, Arizona State University.

Jordan has been an innovative teacher, developing the Digital Media Lab, a semester block of journalism courses designed to provide intensive teaching and training for a limited number of students in a realistic multimedia news environment. He also helped create the Lemke Journalism Project, which has brought minority high school students interested in journalism to the university for the past 18 years. He was awarded the 2017 Barry Bingham Sr. Fellowship, presented by the American Society of News Editors. The award is given in recognition of an educator's outstanding efforts to encourage students of color in the field of journalism.

Jordan served as president of the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, and he is the founding leader of two alumni societies for U of A graduates.

He received the UofA's Silas Hunt Legacy Award in 2010, and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Planning Committee.

He was also the first faculty member to receive the university's national award as Volunteer of the Year.

As the U of A faculty athletics representative Jordan will work closely with the athletics department, be involved with the student-athlete advisory council, in addition to attending SEC and NCAA meetings.

A MESSAGE FROM CHANCELLOR STEINMETZ

Welcome to another exciting season of Razorback baseball. And I do mean season.

Like you, I was sorely disappointed to see last season cut short by the COVID-19 pandemic. Our athletic teams are a source of tremendous pride for the entire Razorback nation, and they remind us of the importance of teamwork, discipline and commitment to a common goal. Nothing brings our campus community, and state, together like Razorback victories. So it was a real blow to our fans, our campus, and especially our student-athletes that their season ended prematurely. They worked hard and put in long hours to earn the right to win as Razorbacks.

We don't anticipate a repeat of last year. With the gradual rollout of a vaccine, we've begun to see the light at the end of the tunnel in terms of the pandemic, though we will continue to have reduced capacity attendance -- among other safety protocols in place -- until we can be reasonably assured of everyone's safety. At the time of this writing, we feel confident we can have a full season of scheduled games – and maybe even make another run at the College World Series. As usual under Coach Van Horn, this year's team is expected to be among the best in the country.

Finally, it bears mentioning that Razorback Athletics is one of the nation's few financially self-sustaining athletics programs and does not receive state funding or student fees. Your great fan support, combined with the careful management of resources, allows the department to be self-sustaining. In fact, if you look to right field, you'll see the new J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center – a $27 million facility funded entirely by athletic revenues, gifts and bond proceeds from a bond issue. It's expected to be the best player development facility in the country.

So on behalf of the University of Arkansas, thank you for your ongoing and ardent support through these unusual times. We couldn't do it without you.

Go Hogs and stay safe!

|| HUNTER YURACHEK

Entering his third full year as vice chancellor and director of athletics at the University of Arkansas for the 2020-21 season, Hunter Yurachek has made the most of his time since Chancellor Joseph Steinmetz announced him as vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017.

Yurachek has implemented a program-wide strategic plan that focused on fostering student-athlete success and centered on achieving the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life. Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches, administrators, Razorback Foundation members and fans, results are being realized on and off the field.

Even in an abbreviated 2019-20 competition schedule, Razorback Athletics built an impressive resume, including accomplishing a couple of program milestones. Arkansas won its first NCAA championship in women's cross country and its first SEC title in soccer. In addition, the Razorbacks earned SEC championships in women's cross country and men's and women's indoor track and field. Razorback student-athletes followed suit in the classroom, earning a 3.24 cumulative GPA with 107 student-athletes adding their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates. The 3.43 term GPA for the spring semester was a program record and marked the 21st consecutive semester for a department GPA of 3.0 or better.

Razorback Athletics was also at the forefront of several key initiatives in 2019-20. Yurachek was named to the Governor's Economic Recovery Task Force, to help guide state reopening in the wake of COVID-19. Yurachek was also added to the NCAA Football Competition Committee. In October, Nolan Richardson Court was dedicated at Bud Walton Arena. The Eddie Sutton Men's Basketball Practice gymnasium was created at the Basketball Performance Center. Construction continues on a number of facility projects including the J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center, Frank O'Mara Track Performance Center and a renovation of the Randal Tyson Track Center.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, including finishing first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track and field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track and field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track and field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback Baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continue to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, and first in the nation among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

The Yurachek family (l-r): Brooks, Jennifer, Hunter, Ryan, and Jake.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three top-five national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. Nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armor FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing top-three finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. The Cougars improved to second in 2016-17 after finishing third in 2015-16. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes opened the fall semester with a record 96 student-athletes on the Dean's List. That record was short lived as 109 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the spring semester. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally. The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek has also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 – or 58.3 percent – posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition. Further breakdown shows that 125 of the 175 women student-athletes (71.4 percent) posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, while 128 of the 259 men (49.4 percent) accomplished the feat.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

363 All-Big South honors
31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
28 All-America honors
11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports
5 Academic All-America honors
4 national postgraduate scholarships
3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also, during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's in ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

The HTC Center opened in 2012 and is the home for Coastal Carolina's men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball programs – as well as the three-year home to the Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. In addition, Adkins Field House, the Boni Belle Baseball/Softball Hitting & Practice Facility, the Will Garland Academic Enhancement Center and the Richard M. Ward MD Sports Performance Center were completed and dedicated while the $10.2 million Baseball/Softball complex will be completed in 2014. Yurachek also secured a 12-court tennis facility and a student-athlete training table facility.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Va., and raised in Charlotte, N.C., Yurachek, and his wife Jennifer have three sons: Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan is a former Marshall University football student-athlete and is a graduate assistant on the Razorback Football staff. Jake is a redshirt-sophomore football student-athlete at the University of Arkansas. Brooks is a sophomore at Fayetteville High School and is a member of the football and boy's basketball teams.
